Emergency First Aid For Schools

Course Overview

Our Emergency First Aid For Schools course is designed for state and private schools to fulfil the legal responsibilities of the Health and Safety (First Aid) Regulations 1981. All organisations must ensure by law that they have a sufficient number of employees that possess a first aid qualification in order to fulfil their first aid needs at all times. The Emergency First Aid For Schools course is designed to enable participants to attain the knowledge and skills needed to deal with a range of emergency first aid situations where both adults or children may be involved. At the end of the course participants will be able to demonstrate the practical administration of safe, prompt and effective first aid in emergency situations with an understanding of the role of the first aider.

Who is this course for?

This course is designed for people who have a specific responsibility at work, or in voluntary and community activities, to provide First Aid when dealing with an emergency situation where both adults or children may be involved. There are no formal entry requirements but in order to benefit from the course participants should possess reasonable communication skills.
